Settling Sevellon A. Brown's Estate. Judge Cox yesterday dismissed the suit of Mrs. Lizzie A. Phelps against Mrs. Sally M. P. Brown, widow of the late Sevellon A. Brown, so far as it relates to the property of Mr. Brown's estate. Mrs. Phelps is the widow of Seth Ledyard Phelps, merly District Commissioner, and is Mrs. Brown's mother. She brought suit last year on a claim for $10,000.

In the decree made yesterday Judge Cox finds that Mrs. Phelps on August 13, 1886, advanced $10,000 to apply to the payment of debts of her husband and that she should have a lien for that amount, with interest from July 1, 1890, against the real property belonging to the Phelps estate. Original lot 14 and part of lot 15, in square 158, recently transferred to Calderon Carlisle and Raudall Hagner, in trust, to settle obligations, are found to be subject to a claim for $7,500, after which the residue is subject to the debt to Mrs. Phelps. PARADE EVEN IMPOSSIBLE

In Company Front the Young Soldiers Moved Up the Avenue in Splendid Form Cheered by Thousands of Spectators-After a Brief Stay at W. L. I. Armory They Disbanded.

The order for the last regimental parade f the High School Cadets was dissolved yesterday afternoon by a succession of the most inopportune showers. The people of the city were banking high on this farewell appearance of the gallant soldier boys for the season, and the postponement of the drill caused universal disappoint-

The parade, however, so far as it went, outtons, plumes, prize banners, the mounted police, and the Marine Band were seen as through a mist of rain, darkly, the display had its otherwise enlivening spectacu-

The rendezvous was on New York avenue near the Presbyterian Church, where the lightning clouds at 5:15 o'clock gave promse of weather good enough to allow the presence of skirts in multitudes on the grass at the White Lot. The formation of the line was witnessed by a very large crowd, which followed with the wonted enthusiasm down New York avenue to Fifth street and thence to Pennsylvania avenue, but alas the water began to fall in such quantities as to knock out even a LADIES IN CROWDS. Along the Avenue there were crowds of the admirers of the boys, among them quite a considerable number of ladies, for whom he rain had no terrors on such an occasion.

The cadets marched up in company front in the following order: Company A, Coptain Auer; Company D, Capt. English; Company C, Capt. Somers; Company H, First Lieut, Ramsburg; Company B, Capt. Butts, Company E, Capt. Jones; Company G, Capt. Howard; Company I, Capt. Grayson, and Company F, Capt. Sites.

The police excert were Sergt. Kenny and twelve mounted men. Then came the Marine Band, who moved the column in a lively meed with the Cadets' March. The regimental officers were Col. W. M. huster, Lieut, Col. Henry Leonard, Adjutant W. Butts, and Quartermaster Riggles. The First Battalion, composed of Companies A. D. C. H. and B was commanded by Major H. T. Domer, adjutant, R. Kimball. The Second Battalion, made up of Com-The Second Battalien, made up of Com-panies E. G. I. and F. was under Major J. W. Steward, Adjutant Barber The bat-talion quartermaster was W. P. McKee When the head of the column reached Fifteenth street and Pennsylvania avenue it was evident that there could be no drill and dress parade at 6 o'clock, and the order was given to move down Fifteenth street, and when opposite the W. L. I. Armory the regiment wheeled fours left into the armory and disappeared from the public gaze. The crowd, however, had good sticking qualities and remained until about half an hour afterward, when the regiment marched out again, There was a council of war in the armory, at which it was decided, the rain permitting, to give a dress parade in front of the Arilugton Hotel. LOOKING FOR CONTRABAND GOODS. In the meanwhile there was a company inspection in the hall, the principal object of which appeared to be to see that the boys had not stored away cartridges in their pockets to go a-gunning with in the holidays.

It was the general opinion and especially that of the military instructor that it would not do to have the boys lying down in the wet grass to fire blank cartridges, with the certainty of pneumonia as a dress parade appendix. The Marine Band was dismissed and as they came out the crowd saw that the jig was up as well as the rest of the music.

The dress parade on the asphalt in front of the Arington was also postponed and, when the regiment marched out, it was to march up Fifteenth to New York avenue and thence to the rendezvous, where the regiment was disbunded for the season.

The Secretary of War was expected to be present, and also the District Commissioners.

Capt. Taussig, the captain of the prize company, is at Annapetis, and could not appear with his company. Company H, however, was quite easily distinguished by the banner, on which were all the prize streamers for the past years and their own streamer, lately won.

Good Jockeying Wins a Hotly Contested Race in Fast Time.

BOTH HORSES WELL BACKED

Last Race Was Also a Great Event for the "Good Thing" Players. Everything Was Touted but a Fiftyto-one Got All the Money-Long Delays at the Post.

Ataman's race with Eclipse yesterday makes him very nearly the best horse at the across the river tracks. At even weights he gave Eclipse a good beating at a mile and a sixteenth in the fast time of 1:50 1-4.

The race was one of the best betting races that has been seen at the meeting. In the opening betting Eclipse was quoted at 4 to 5 and was heavily played. Then Ataman warmed up and the "railbirds" came in and got down on him with big chunks of money.

From then until the horses went to the post it was first one horse and then the other, Ataman finally closing favorite at 4 to 5, with Eclipse at 6 to 5.

Willie Ham got Ataman off slightly in front, and, setting a merry clip, made all the running. Eclipse got off badly and did not commence to move up until they struck the far turn, where she came very fast. MADE A BOLD BID. He challenged Ataman at the head of the stretch, but between the latter's gameness and speed and Ham's superior lockeyship, he could not quite get up and Araman won in rather handy fashion, by a length. The whole card at St. Asaph was good

Flyan could hardly be held responsible, as the set of stable boys he has to handle are about as bad as could be found in a dead's hore. day's bunt Selah furnished the surprise of the day by landing the last race at odds of 50 to 1 with no takers. The race was a great betting event, five out of the seven starters being heavily tipped as winners. After Silver Queen had quit selab came on and won in a hard drive by a head.

Archbishop was the favorite in the opening event, and, getting the best of the start, made all the running and lasted long enough to win by a head from Minne-

The third event at two-thirds of a mile went to Halcyon, a 4 to 1 stot. Con Lucy set the pace to the turn, where Aiford came through with Halcyon, and won sleverly by a length.

Ataman got off in front in the fourth event and was never cought. Eclipse made a bold bid for the money, but could

The fifth event was simply an exercise gallop for Belisarius, who took command when he pleased and won by three lengths The closing race went to Selah, Silver Queen made all the unning, but shut up like a jack-knife

Ring and Paddock Murphy again distinguished himself by pulling Gonzales out of third place. He could have been third to a meral cer-certainty if he had ridden his mount our. Neary and Hayes were each fined $25 for refusing to break in the second race. "Dink" Donnelly was at the track, but as again taken sick and could not ride.

Judge Martin called Murphy up and varned him to ride Bespair to win. The use was out in every break and so killed is chances while at the post. A great crowd of stable boys and jeckeys. assembled in the infield and gave all the old timers who rode in the first race a greatreception when they came out on the track.

McCauley, who rode Minnesota, made a claim of foul against Archbishop, but it was not allowed. Frank D. was a red hot tip in the se race. He was played down from 15 to 2 to 1. Murphy was so sick when he finished

Ham rode a clever race on Caroven, dropping out of the money and then coming again at the end and beating West Park out.

Bouts at Kerman's.

The meeting of Joe Gans and Fred. Swigert in a ten-round contest at Kernan's Lyceum Theater last tright did not furnish the good "go" expected by the local supporters of the fixtic game. The boys seemed to be afraid of burting each other and it was only after George Northridge the referee, had stopped the bout in the fifth round that they agreed to go in and fight. Even then it appeared very fakey, and when the referee called it a draw, on the grounds that Gans had elbowed Swigert to wipe his face, it only served to heighten the farce.

The preliminary between Alec, Brown and Tobe Banks was a corker from start to finish and was awarded to Banks. Johnny Ball referred this contest.
